	month.
2.	The delegation was hampered by a lack of cash, and did not have specific instruction as to what should be bought. The members of the delegation have been receiving salesmen only since 20 February 1953 because they did not do business during the Chinese New Year. Apparently the Chinese are still deficient in cash but West German firms are willing to make some barter deals with them. The West Germans are particularly eager to obtain antimony for hard steel processes.
